

SA TERRA ROTJA

Son Bunyola, Mallorca

Mallorca has some of the most beautiful mountain scenery in the Mediterranean and Sir Richard Branson's private four bedroom villa in Mallorca, Sa Terra Rotja, is ideally positioned to appreciate it. Located on the Son Buyola Estate, on the northwest coast of Mallorca and only a 35 minute drive from Palma Airport, Sa Terra Rotja is definitely for those who want to get away from it all.

Available for exclusive hire for eight guests, with two dedicated local staff and including all meals and beverages, this beautiful stone house is the perfect place to sit back, relax and enjoy the view. Once you have appreciated the glorious views over mountains to one side and olive groves to the other, you will have little inclination to leave.

Inside, Sa Terra Rotja is very bright and beautifully decorated, with lots of modern art on the walls. The villa is heated and fully air-conditioned and there is a wood burning fireplace in the lounge if guests really want to get toasty during the colder month.

Accommodation

Sa Terra Rotja has four double bedrooms, all with en-suite bathrooms...

The Master Suite occupies the entire upper level of the west wing. It has a king size bed and a Jacuzzi bath.

The Green Room occupies the front half of the upper level in the east wing. It has a king size bed and a large private terrace.

The Red Room occupies the front half of the lower level in the east wing. It has a four poster king size bed and a private terrace. In this room there is also a large sofa that folds out into a double bed so two extra people can be accommodated in this room.

The Blue Room occupies the rear half of the lower level in the east wing. It has a king size bed and a large private terrace.

All rooms have sea and mountain views except for the Blue Room, which has a very pretty view of the mountains and enjoys early morning sunshine on the terrace. All of the bathrooms have terracotta floors and local furnishing and come equipped with a separate bath and shower, twin basins, toilet and bidet.
