

Christmas events release

Christmas 2008

Pre and Post Christmas exclusive parties at The Roof Gardens

Stunning packages available for the festive season 2008 and also January 2009

With a stylish art deco space spanning across one and a half acres of pristine gardens, The Roof Gardens, is easily one of west London's most admired events and party venues, right in the heart of the capital.

This Christmas, The Roof Gardens are again offering their, stunning buffet or plated 'Christmas exclusive lunch parties' in November and December 2008. Recognising that not all groups and companies have the chance to enjoy their Christmas parties before the holidays, The Roof Gardens is also offering buffet or plated 'Post Christmas exclusive evening parties' to liven up Januarys and keep the party going well into the New Year!

No other venue in London combines the opportunity to enjoy three beautiful outdoors gardens - The Spanish Garden, The Tudor Garden and The English Woodland Garden – with such versatile events space, all located within 'The Club House', 100 feet above the hustle and bustle of Kensington High Street. Even London's most famous pair of pink flamingos (Bill & Ben) will be on hand in the garden to provide an extra sparkle to the event.

Notes for Editors:

Owned by Sir Richard Branson for over twenty years, The Roof Gardens were originally completed in 1938 and have become a much loved landmark for most Londoners. The Roof Gardens is a popular choice for anyone looking to hold other events such as awards dinners, BBQ parties, weddings and conferences. In 2006 The Roof Gardens was voted number one location for events by FHM / Media Week and has also been voted 'best venue' by respected London publication Time Out.
