SIR RICHARD BRANSON'S PRIVATE ISLAND

Necker Island, Sir Richard Branson's private island, is situated in the British Virgin Islands, a stunning area of the Caribbean. The island sits in turquoise waters surrounded by coral reefs fringed with beautiful white sandy beaches.

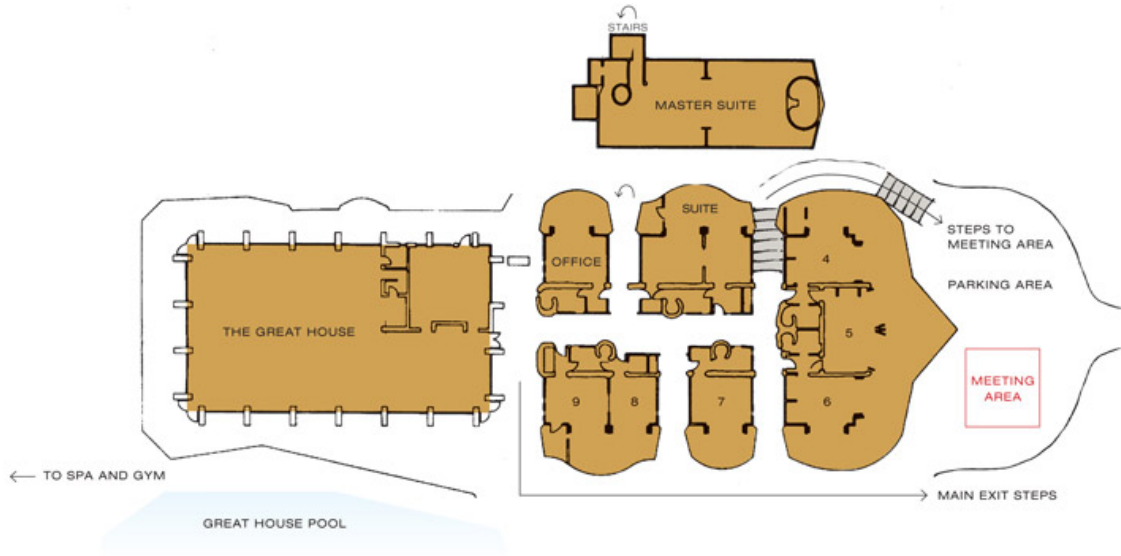

Necker can become your own private hideaway, where you dictate the pace and the mood. Amongst the 74 acres of tropical flora and fauna, The Great House and the six beautiful Balinese Houses provide guests with stunning ocean views and privacy. For the more energetic, the water activities, tennis courts and Beach Pavilion are located on Main Beach. Alternatively Turtle Beach is more peaceful, with hammocks strung between the trees. For total relaxation, guests can enjoy a variety of massages and treatments at the Bali Leha spa. Dinner can be enjoyed by firelight, candlelight or starlight and the chefs will prepare whatever guests desire.

Necker Island can be hired privately for up to 28 guests or the island experience can be enjoyed during Celebration Weeks when individual rooms can be booked.
